California State University, Fresno Foundation

COACH - WAYFINDERS JOB ANNOUNCEMENT #25-689

 SUMMARY: Fresno Foundation. The position is year-round. The Coach will provide support to Wayfinders Students across various domains. Domains include residential, vocation, University Inclusion and Community Inclusion. The Coach will report to the Coach is to assist Wayfinders students in developing the skills necessary to gain independence across domains, as identified by the department. The goa of the Coach is to support and guide Wayfinders students towards self-determination, self-advocacy, and independence. Applicant must have a strong interest in improving the lives of individuals with disabilities. Assignments will rotate as needed for proper staffing of student activities, work schedules and trainings. Shift work: morning, evening, and/or weekend hours. Driving may be required. Coaches may be placed at sites at Fresno State and/or within the community to support students. ESSENTIAL JOB Typical duties include, but are not limited to the following: Demonstrate a passion and ability to relate to individuals with intellectual/developmenta disabilities, Demonstrate effective and appropriate communication with staff, students, and community and campus stakeholders, Provide coaching support to Wayfinders students on appropriate behaviors and interpersonal skills, Provide coaching support to Wayfinders students on appropriate behaviors and interpersonal skills, Provide guidance necessary to assist Wayfinders students and other community sites as necessary. Accompany Wayfinders students on public transportation (Ride Share/Buses) to off campus sites. This may include working with Wayfinders students on how to use Google Maps/Transit. Provide coaching support to Wayfinders students and ther community. Observe, collect data and monitor student progress within the program, using tools of act	POSITION	Part-time, non-benefited position for the Wayfinders Program with California State University, Community Inclusion. The Coach will report to the Coordinator overseing the domain which they were hired for. The primary responsibility of the Coach is to assist Wayfinders students in developing the skills necessary to gain independence across domains, as identified by the department. The goa of the Coach is to support and guide Wayfinders students towards self-determination, self-advocacy and independence. Applicant must have a strong interest in improving the lives of individuals with disabilities. Assignments will rotate as needed for proper staffing of student activities, work schedules and trainings. Shift work: morning, evening, and/or weekend hours. Driving may be required. Coaches may be placed at sites at Fresno State and/or within the community to support students. ESSENTIAL JOB FUNCTIONS: Typical duties include, but are not limited to the following: Demonstrate a passion and ability to relate to individuals with intellectual/developmenta disabilities, Demonstrate effective and appropriate communication with staff, students, and community and campus stakeholders, Provide coaching support to Wayfinders students on appropriate behaviors and interpersonal skills, Provide coaching support to Wayfinders students on appropriate behaviors and execution of employment opportunities, Accompany Wayfinders students to classes, job sites/appointments and other community sites as necessary. Accompany Wayfinders students to classes, job sites/appointments and other community, sites as necessary. Accompany Wayfinders students on public transportation (Ride Share/Buses) to off campus sites. This may include working with Wayfinders students and voe to se Google Maps/Transit. Provide coaching support to Wayfinders students at various sites in the community, Observe, collect		Fresno Foundation. The position is year-round. The Coach will provide support to Wayfinders were hired for. The primary responsibility of the Coach is to assist Wayfinders students in developing the skills necessary to gain independence across domains, as identified by the department. The goa of the Coach is to support and guide Wayfinders students towards self-determination, self-advocacy, and independence. Applicant must have a strong interest in improving of student activities, work schedules and trainings. Shift work: morning, evening, and/or weekend hours. Driving may be required. Coaches may be placed at sites at Fresno State and/or within the community to support students. ESSENTIAL JOB Typical duties include, but are not limited to the following: Demonstrate a passion and ability to relate to individuals with intellectual/developmenta disabilities, Demonstrate apassion and ability to relate to individuals with intellectual/developmenta disabilities, Demonstrate effective and appropriate communication with staff, students, and community and campus stakeholders, Provide coaching support to Wayfinders students on appropriate behaviors and interpersonal skills, Provide guidance necessary to assist Wayfinders students in the successful planning and execution of employment to poportunities, Accompany Wayfinders students on public transportation (Ride Share/Buses) to off campus sites. This may include working with Wayfinders students on how to use Google Maps/Transit, Provide coaching support to Wayfinders students at various sites in the community, sites an eccessary, Accompany Wayfinders students on public transportation (Ride Share/Buses) to off campus sites. This may include working with Wayfinders students, and stakeholders, Model superior customer service to all Wayfinders staff, students, and stakeholders, Model superior customer service to all Wayfinder		Students across various domains. Domains include residential, vocation, University Inclusion and the skills necessary to gain independence across domains, as identified by the department. The gain of the Coach is to support and guide Wayfinders students towards self-determination, self-advocacy, and independence. Applicant must have a strong interest in improving the lives of individuals with disabilities. Assignments will rotate as needed for proper staffing of student activities, work schedules and trainings. Shift work: morning, evening, and/or weekend hours. Driving may be required. Coaches may be placed at sites at Fresno State and/or within the community to support students. ESSENTIAL JOB Typical duties include, but are not limited to the following: Demonstrate a passion and ability to relate to individuals with intellectual/developmenta disabilities, Demonstrate offective and appropriate communication with staff, students, and community and campus stakeholders, Provide coaching support to Wayfinders students with the goal of skill acquisition, Assist/support students with various as needed, in a way that promotes ownership, choice education and decision-making skills, Provide coaching support to Wayfinders students on appropriate behaviors and interpersonal skills, Provide quidance necessary to assist Wayfinders students on appropriate behaviors and execution of employment opportunities, Accompany Wayfinders students to classes, job sites/appointments and other community sites as necessary, Accompany Wayfinders students on public transportation (Ride Share/Buses) to off campus sites. This may include working with Wayfinders students on how to use Google Maps/Transit, Provide coaching support to Wayfinders students at various sites in the community, sites as necessary, Accompany Wayfinders students moritor student progress within the program, using tools and st		Community Inclusion. The Coach will report to the Coordinator overseeing the domain which they
 of the Coach is to support and guide Wayfinders students towards self-determination, self-advocacy, and independence. Applicant must have a strong interest in improving the lives of individuals with disabilities. Assignments will rotate as needed for proper staffing of student activities, work schedules and trainings. Shift work: morning, evening, and/or weekend hours. Driving may be required. Coaches may be placed at sites at Fresno State and/or within the community to support students. ESSENTIAL JOB Typical duties include, but are not limited to the following: Demonstrate effective and appropriate communication with staff, students, and community and campus stakeholders, Provide coaching support to Wayfinders students with the goal of skill acquisition, Assist/support students with various as needed, in a way that promotes ownership, choice education and decision-making skills, Provide guidance necessary to assist Wayfinders students in the successful planning and execution of employment opportunities, Accompany Wayfinders students to classes, job sites/appointments and other community sites as necessary, Accompany Wayfinders students on public transportation (Ride Share/Buses) to off campus sites. This may include working with Wayfinders students on how to use Google Maps/Transit, Provide coaching support to Wayfinders students at various sites in the community, to Observe, collect data and monitor student provide in a prompt, timely manner, Communicate with supervisor and site administration through a weekly schedule/log of activities and individualized notes, Model superior customer service to all Wayfinders staff, students, and stakeholders, Model superior customer service to all Wayfinders staff, students, and stakeholders, Model s		were hired for. The primary responsibility of the Coach is to assist Wayfinders students in developing and independence. Applicant must have a strong interest in improving the lives of individuals with disabilities. Assignments will rotate as needed for proper staffing of student activities, work schedules and trainings. Shift work: morning, evening, and/or weekend hours. Driving may be required. Coaches may be placed at sites at Fresno State and/or within the community to support students. ESSENTIAL JOB FUNCTIONS: Typical duties include, but are not limited to the following: Demonstrate a passion and ability to relate to individuals with intellectual/developmental disabilities, Demonstrate effective and appropriate communication with staff, students, and community and campus stakeholders, Provide coaching support to Wayfinders students with the goal of skill acquisition, Assist/support students with various as needed, in a way that promotes ownership, choice education and decision-making skills, Provide guidance necessary to assist Wayfinders students in the successful planning and execution of employment opportunities, Accompany Wayfinders students to classes, job sites/appointments and other community sites as necessary, Accompany Wayfinders students on public transportation (Ride Share/Buses) to off campus sites. This may include working with Wayfinders students on how to use Google Maps/Transit, Provide coaching support to Wayfinders students and various sites in the community. Observe, collect data and monitor student progress within the program, using tools and strategies acquired through ongoing professional development, Submit documentation for shifts and/or supports provided in a prompt, timely manner, Communicate with supervisor and site administration through a weekly schedule/log of activities and individualized notes,		the skills necessary to gain independence across domains, as identified by the department. The goal disabilities. Assignments will rotate as needed for proper staffing of student activities, work schedules and trainings. Shift work: morning, evening, and/or weekend hours. Driving may be placed at sites at Fresno State and/or within the community to support students. ESSENTIAL JOB FUNCTIONS: Typical duties include, but are not limited to the following: Demonstrate a passion and ability to relate to individuals with intellectual/developmenta disabilities, Demonstrate apasport to Wayfinders students with the goal of skill acquisition, Assist/support students with various as needed, in a way that promotes ownership, choice education and decision-making skills, Provide coaching support to Wayfinders students on appropriate behaviors and interpersonal skills, Provide coaching support to Vayfinders students in the successful planning and execution of employment opportunities, Accompany Wayfinders students to classes, job sites/appointments and other community sites as necessary, Accompany Wayfinders students to classes, job sites/appointments and other community, sites as necessary, Accompany Wayfinders students to classes, job sites in the community, Observe, collect data and monitor student pargress within the program, using tools and strategies acquired through ongoing professional development, Submit documentation for shifts and/or supports provided in a prompt, timely manner, Communicate with supervisor and site administration through a weekly schedule/log of activities and individualized notes, Model superior customer service to all Wayfinders staff, students, and stakeholders, Maintain confidentiality of all pertinent matters relating to personnel, students and racuty, Serve as an advocate for disabled students with related community agencies and various Fresso State departments and/or programs. Respond to emergency situations, as needed in collabora		of the Coach is to support and guide Wayfinders students towards self-determination, self-advocacy, schedules and träinings. Shift work: morning, evening, and/or weekend hours. Driving may be required. Coaches may be placed at sites at Fresno State and/or within the community to support students. ESSENTIAL JOB FUNCTIONS: Typical duties include, but are not limited to the following: Demonstrate a passion and ability to relate to individuals with intellectual/developmental disabilities, Demonstrate effective and appropriate communication with staff, students, and community and campus stakeholders, Provide coaching support to Wayfinders students with the goal of skill acquisition, Assist/support students with various as needed, in a way that promotes ownership, choice education and decision-making skills, Provide coaching support to Wayfinders students on appropriate behaviors and interpersonal skills, Provide guidance necessary to assist Wayfinders students in the successful planning and execution of employment opportunities, Accompany Wayfinders students to classes, job sites/appointments and other community, sites as necessary, Accompany Wayfinders students on public transportation (Ride Share/Buses) to off campus stakes. This may include working with Wayfinders students on how to use Google Maps/Transit, Provide coaching support to Wayfinders students at various sites in the community, Observe, collect data and monitor student progress within the program, using tools and strategies acquired through ongoing professional development, Submit documentation for shifts and/or supports provided in a prompt, timely manner, Communicate with supervisor and site administration through a weekly schedule/log of activities and individualized notes, Model superior customer service to all Wayfinders staff, stu		and independence. Applicant must have a strong interest in improving the lives of individuals with required. Coaches may be placed at sites at Fresno State and/or within the community to support students. Typical duties include, but are not limited to the following: Demonstrate a passion and ability to relate to individuals with intellectual/developmental disabilities, Demonstrate effective and appropriate communication with staff, students, and community and campus stakeholders, Provide coaching support to Wayfinders students with the goal of skill acquisition, Assist/support students with various as needed, in a way that promotes ownership, choice education and decision-making skills, Provide coaching support to Wayfinders students on appropriate behaviors and interpersonal skills, Provide coaching support to Wayfinders students in the successful planning and execution of employment opportunities, Accompany Wayfinders students to classes, job sites/appointments and other community sites as necessary, Accompany Wayfinders students on public transportation (Ride Share/Buses) to off campus sites. This may include working with Wayfinders students on how to use Google Maps/Transit, Provide coaching support to Wayfinders students at various sites in the community, Observe, collect data and monitor student progress within the program, using tools and strategies acquired through ongoing professional development, Submit documentation for shifts and/or supports provided in a prompt, timely manner, Communicate with supervisor and site administration through a weekly schedule/log of activities and individualized notes, Model superior customer service to all Wayfinders staff, students, and stakeholders, Maintain confidentiality of all pertinent matters relating to personnel, students and faculty, Serve as an advocate for disabled students with related community agencies and various Fresno State departm		disabilities. Assignments will rotate as needed for proper staffing of student activities, work students. Typical duties include, but are not limited to the following: Typical duties include, but are not limited to the following: Demonstrate a passion and ability to relate to individuals with intellectual/developmental disabilities, Demonstrate effective and appropriate communication with staff, students, and community and campus stakeholders, Provide coaching support to Wayfinders students with the goal of skill acquisition, Assist/support students with various as needed, in a way that promotes ownership, choice education and decision-making skills. Provide coaching support to Wayfinders students on appropriate behaviors and interpersonal skills, Provide guidance necessary to assist Wayfinders students in the successful planning and execution of employment opportunities, Accompany Wayfinders students to classes, job sites/appointments and other community sites as necessary, Accompany Wayfinders students on public transportation (Ride Share/Buses) to off campus sites. This may include working with Wayfinders students on how to use Google Maps/Transit, Provide coaching support to Wayfinders students at various sites in the community, Observe, collect data and monitor student progress within the program, using tools and strategies acquired through ongoing professional development, Submit documentation for shifts and/or supports provided in a prompt, timely manner, Communicate with supervisor and site administration through a weekly schedule/log of activities and individualized notes, Maintain confidentiality of all pertinent matters relating to personnel, students and faculty, Serve as an advocate for disabled students with related community agencies and various Fresno State departments and/or programs, Respond to emergency situations, as needed in collaboration with Wayfinders staff, Address and resolve issues that threaten the health saf		schedules and trainings. Shift work: morning, evening, and/or weekend hours. Driving may be
 Typical duties include, but are not limited to the following: Demonstrate a passion and ability to relate to individuals with intellectual/developmenta disabilities, Demonstrate effective and appropriate communication with staff, students, and community and campus stakeholders, Provide coaching support to Wayfinders students with the goal of skill acquisition, Assist/support students with various as needed, in a way that promotes ownership, choice education and decision-making skills, Provide coaching support to Wayfinders students on appropriate behaviors and interpersonal skills, Provide coaching support to assist Wayfinders students in the successful planning and execution of employment opportunities, Accompany Wayfinders students to classes, job sites/appointments and other community sites as necessary, Accompany Wayfinders students on public transportation (Ride Share/Buses) to off campus sites. This may include working with Wayfinders students on how to use Google Maps/Transit, Provide coaching support to Wayfinders students at various sites in the community, Observe, collect data and monitor student progress within the program, using tools and strategies acquired through ongoing professional development, Submit documentation for shifts and/or supports provided in a prompt, timely manner, Communicate with supervisor and site administration through a weekly schedule/log of activities and individualized notes, Model superior customer service to all Wayfinders staff, students, and stakeholders, Maintain confidentiality of all pertinent matters relating to personnel, students and faculty, Serve as an advocate for disabled students with related community agencies and various Fresno State departments and/or programs, Respond to emergency situations, as needed in collaboration with Wayfinders staff, Address and resolve issues that threaten the health sa		required. Coaches may be placed at sites at Fresno State and/or within the community to support FUNCTIONS: Demonstrate a passion and ability to relate to individuals with intellectual/developmental disabilities, Demonstrate effective and appropriate communication with staff, students, and community and campus stakeholders, Provide coaching support to Wayfinders students with the goal of skill acquisition, Assist/Support students with various as needed, in a way that promotes ownership, choice education and decision-making skills, Provide coaching support to Wayfinders students on appropriate behaviors and interpersonal skills, Provide guidance necessary to assist Wayfinders students in the successful planning and execution of employment opportunities, Accompany Wayfinders students to classes, job sites/appointments and other community sites as necessary, Accompany Wayfinders students on public transportation (Ride Share/Buses) to off campus sites. This may include working with Wayfinders students on how to use Google Maps/Transit, Provide coaching support to Wayfinders students at various sites in the community, Observe, collect data and monitor student progress within the program, using tools and strategies acquired through ongoing professional development, Submit documentation for shifts and/or supports provided in a prompt, timely manner, Communicate with supervisor and site administration through a weekly schedule/log of activities and individualized notes, Model superior customer service to all Wayfinders staff, students, and stakeholders, Maintain confidentiality of all pertinent matters relating to personnel, students and faculty, Serve as an advocate for disabled students with related community agencies and various Fresso State departments and/or program, Respond to emergency situations, as needed in collaboration with Wayfinders staff, Address and resolve issues that threaten the health safety and continued independence of Wayfinders stu		students.
 disabilities, Demonstrate effective and appropriate communication with staff, students, and community and campus stakeholders, Provide coaching support to Wayfinders students with the goal of skill acquisition, Assist/support students with various as needed, in a way that promotes ownership, choice education and decision-making skills, Provide coaching support to Wayfinders students on appropriate behaviors and interpersonal skills, Provide guidance necessary to assist Wayfinders students in the successful planning and execution of employment opportunities, Accompany Wayfinders students to classes, job sites/appointments and other community sites as necessary, Accompany Wayfinders students on public transportation (Ride Share/Buses) to off campus sites. This may include working with Wayfinders students on how to use Google Maps/Transit, Provide coaching support to Wayfinders students at various sites in the community, Observe, collect data and monitor student progress within the program, using tools and strategies acquired through ongoing professional development, Submit documentation for shifts and/or supports provided in a prompt, timely manner, Communicate with supervisor and site administration through a weekly schedule/log of activities and individualized notes, Model superior customer service to all Wayfinders staff, students, and stakeholders, Maintain confidentiality of all pertinent matters relating to personnel, students and faculty, Serve as an advocate for disabled students with related community agencies and various Fresno State departments and/or program, Respond to emergency situations, as needed in collaboration with Wayfinders students, Address and resolve issues that threaten the health safety and continued independence of Wayfinders students, Attend all required program and/or domain meetings, workshops, trainings and/or other profes Demonstrate effective and appropriate communication with staff, students, and community and campus stakeholders, Provide coaching support to Wayfinders students with the goal of skill acquisition, Assist/support students with various as needed, in a way that promotes ownership, choice education and decision-making skills, Provide coaching support to Wayfinders students on appropriate behaviors and interpersonal skills, Provide guidance necessary to assist Wayfinders students in the successful planning and execution of employment opportunities, Accompany Wayfinders students to classes, job sites/appointments and other community sites as necessary, Accompany Wayfinders students on public transportation (Ride Share/Buses) to off campus sites. This may include working with Wayfinders students on how to use Google Maps/Transit, Provide coaching support to Wayfinders students at various sites in the community, Observe, collect data and monitor student progress within the program, using tools and strategies acquired through ongoing professional development, Submit documentation for shifts and/or supports provided in a prompt, timely manner, Communicate with supervisor and site administration through a weekly schedule/log of activities and individualized notes, Model superior customer service to all Wayfinders staff, students, and stakeholders, Maintain confidentiality of all pertinent matters relating to personnel, students and faculty, Serve as an advocate for disabled students with related community agencies and various Fresso State departments and/or programs, Respond to emergency situations, as needed in collaboration with Wayfinders staff, Address and resolve issues that threaten the health safety and continued independence of Wayfinders students, 	FUNCTIONS:	Demonstrate a passion and ability to relate to individuals with intellectual/developmental and campus stakeholders, Provide coaching support to Wayfinders students with the goal of skill acquisition, Assist/support students with various as needed, in a way that promotes ownership, choice education and decision-making skills, Provide coaching support to Wayfinders students on appropriate behaviors and interpersonal skills, Provide guidance necessary to assist Wayfinders students in the successful planning and execution of employment opportunities, Accompany Wayfinders students to classes, job sites/appointments and other community sites as necessary, Accompany Wayfinders students on public transportation (Ride Share/Buses) to off campus sites. This may include working with Wayfinders students on how to use Google Maps/Transit, Provide coaching support to Wayfinders students at various sites in the community, Observe, collect data and monitor student progress within the program, using tools and strategies acquired through ongoing professional development, Submit documentation for shifts and/or supports provided in a prompt, timely manner, Communicate with supervisor and site administration through a weekly schedule/log of activities and individualized notes, Model superior customer service to all Wayfinders staff, students, and stakeholders, Maintain confidentiality of all pertinent matters relating to personnel, students and faculty, Serve as an advocate for disabled students with related community agencies and various Fresso State departments and/or programs, Respond to emergency situations, as needed in collaboration with Wayfinders staff, Address and resolve issues that threaten the health safety and continued independence of Wayfinders students, Attend all required program and/or domain meetings, workshops, trainings and/or other professional development opportunities unless explicitly excused by supervising Coordinator, 		disabilities,
 Provide coaching support to Wayfinders students with the goal of skill acquisition, Assist/support students with various as needed, in a way that promotes ownership, choice education and decision-making skills, Provide coaching support to Wayfinders students on appropriate behaviors and interpersonal skills, Provide guidance necessary to assist Wayfinders students in the successful planning and execution of employment opportunities, Accompany Wayfinders students to classes, job sites/appointments and other community sites as necessary, Accompany Wayfinders students on public transportation (Ride Share/Buses) to off campus sites. This may include working with Wayfinders students on how to use Google Maps/Transit, Provide coaching support to Wayfinders students at various sites in the community, Observe, collect data and monitor student progress within the program, using tools and strategies acquired through ongoing professional development, Submit documentation for shifts and/or supports provided in a prompt, timely manner, Communicate with supervisor and site administration through a weekly schedule/log of activities and individualized notes, Model superior customer service to all Wayfinders staff, students, and stakeholders, Maintain confidentiality of all pertinent matters relating to personnel, students and faculty, Serve as an advocate for disabled students with related community agencies and various Fresso State departments and/or programs, Respond to emergency situations, as needed in collaboration with Wayfinders staff, Address and resolve issues that threaten the health safety and continued independence of Wayfinders students, Attend all required program and/or domain meetings, workshops, trainings and/or other professional development opportunities unless explicitly excued by supervising Coordinato		Demonstrate effective and appropriate communication with staff, students, and community
 Assist/support students with various as needed, in a way that promotes ownership, choice education and decision-making skills, Provide coaching support to Wayfinders students on appropriate behaviors and interpersonal skills, Provide guidance necessary to assist Wayfinders students in the successful planning and execution of employment opportunities, Accompany Wayfinders students to classes, job sites/appointments and other community sites as necessary, Accompany Wayfinders students on public transportation (Ride Share/Buses) to off campus sites. This may include working with Wayfinders students on how to use Google Maps/Transit, Provide coaching support to Wayfinders students at various sites in the community, Observe, collect data and monitor student progress within the program, using tools and strategies acquired through ongoing professional development, Submit documentation for shifts and/or supports provided in a prompt, timely manner, Communicate with supervisor and site administration through a weekly schedule/log of activities and individualized notes, Model superior customer service to all Wayfinders staff, students, and stakeholders, Maintain confidentiality of all pertinent matters relating to personnel, students and faculty, Serve as an advocate for disabled students with related community agencies and various Fresno State departments and/or programs, Respond to emergency situations, as needed in collaboration with Wayfinders staff, Address and resolve issues that threaten the health safety and continued independence of Wayfinders students, Attend all required program and/or domain meetings, workshops, trainings and/or other professional development opportunities unless explicitly excused by supervising Coordinator, 		and campus stakeholders, education and decision-making skills, Provide coaching support to Wayfinders students on appropriate behaviors and interpersonal skills, Provide guidance necessary to assist Wayfinders students in the successful planning and execution of employment opportunities, Accompany Wayfinders students to classes, job sites/appointments and other community sites as necessary, Accompany Wayfinders students on public transportation (Ride Share/Buses) to off campus sites. This may include working with Wayfinders students on how to use Google Maps/Transit, Provide coaching support to Wayfinders students at various sites in the community, Observe, collect data and monitor student progress within the program, using tools and strategies acquired through ongoing professional development, Submit documentation for shifts and/or supports provided in a prompt, timely manner, Communicate with supervisor and site administration through a weekly schedule/log of activities and individualized notes, Model superior customer service to all Wayfinders staff, students, and stakeholders, Maintain confidentiality of all pertinent matters relating to personnel, students and faculty, Serve as an advocate for disabled students with related community agencies and various Fresno State departments and/or programs, Respond to emergency situations, as needed in collaboration with Wayfinders staff, Address and resolve issues that threaten the health safety and continued independence of Wayfinders students, Attend all required program and/or domain meetings, workshops, trainings and/or other professional development opportunities unless explicitly excused by supervising Coordinator, 		 Provide coaching support to Wayfinders students with the goal of skill acquisition, Provide coaching support to Wayfinders students on appropriate behaviors and interpersonal skills, Provide guidance necessary to assist Wayfinders students in the successful planning and execution of employment opportunities, Accompany Wayfinders students to classes, job sites/appointments and other community sites as necessary, Accompany Wayfinders students on public transportation (Ride Share/Buses) to off campus sites. This may include working with Wayfinders students on how to use Google Maps/Transit, Provide coaching support to Wayfinders students at various sites in the community, Observe, collect data and monitor student progress within the program, using tools and strategies acquired through ongoing professional development, Submit documentation for shifts and/or supports provided in a prompt, timely manner, Communicate with supervisor and site administration through a weekly schedule/log of activities and individualized notes, Model superior customer service to all Wayfinders staff, students, and stakeholders, Maintain confidentiality of all pertinent matters relating to personnel, students and faculty, Serve as an advocate for disabled students with related community agencies and various Fresno State departments and/or programs, Respond to emergency situations, as needed in collaboration with Wayfinders staff, Address and resolve issues that threaten the health safety and continued independence of Wayfinders students, Attend all required program and/or domain meetings, workshops, trainings and/or other professional development opportunities unless explicitly excused by supervising Coordinator, 		• Assist/support students with various as needed, in a way that promotes ownership, choice interpersonal skills, Provide guidance necessary to assist Wayfinders students in the successful planning and execution of employment opportunities, Accompany Wayfinders students to classes, job sites/appointments and other community sites as necessary, Accompany Wayfinders students on public transportation (Ride Share/Buses) to off campus sites. This may include working with Wayfinders students on how to use Google Maps/Transit, Provide coaching support to Wayfinders students at various sites in the community, Observe, collect data and monitor student progress within the program, using tools and strategies acquired through ongoing professional development, Submit documentation for shifts and/or supports provided in a prompt, timely manner, Communicate with supervisor and site administration through a weekly schedule/log of activities and individualized notes, Model superior customer service to all Wayfinders staff, students, and stakeholders, Maintain confidentiality of all pertinent matters relating to personnel, students and faculty, Serve as an advocate for disabled students with related community agencies and various Fresno State departments and/or programs, Respond to emergency situations, as needed in collaboration with Wayfinders staff, Address and resolve issues that threaten the health safety and continued independence of Wayfinders students, Attend all required program and/or domain meetings, workshops, trainings and/or other professional development opportunities unless explicitly excused by supervising Coordinator, 		education and decision-making skills, execution of employment opportunities, Accompany Wayfinders students to classes, job sites/appointments and other community sites as necessary, Accompany Wayfinders students on public transportation (Ride Share/Buses) to off campus sites. This may include working with Wayfinders students on how to use Google Maps/Transit, Provide coaching support to Wayfinders students at various sites in the community, Observe, collect data and monitor student progress within the program, using tools and strategies acquired through ongoing professional development, Submit documentation for shifts and/or supports provided in a prompt, timely manner, Communicate with supervisor and site administration through a weekly schedule/log of activities and individualized notes, Model superior customer service to all Wayfinders staff, students, and stakeholders, Maintain confidentiality of all pertinent matters relating to personnel, students and faculty, Serve as an advocate for disabled students with related community agencies and various Fresno State departments and/or programs, Respond to emergency situations, as needed in collaboration with Wayfinders staff, Address and resolve issues that threaten the health safety and continued independence of Wayfinders students, Attend all required program and/or domain meetings, workshops, trainings and/or other professional development opportunities unless explicitly excused by supervising Coordinator, 		 Provide coaching support to Wayfinders students on appropriate behaviors and interpersonal skills, execution of employment opportunities, Accompany Wayfinders students to classes, job sites/appointments and other community sites as necessary, Accompany Wayfinders students on public transportation (Ride Share/Buses) to off campus sites. This may include working with Wayfinders students on how to use Google Maps/Transit, Provide coaching support to Wayfinders students at various sites in the community, Observe, collect data and monitor student progress within the program, using tools and strategies acquired through ongoing professional development, Submit documentation for shifts and/or supports provided in a prompt, timely manner, Communicate with supervisor and site administration through a weekly schedule/log of activities and individualized notes, Model superior customer service to all Wayfinders staff, students, and stakeholders, Maintain confidentiality of all pertinent matters relating to personnel, students and faculty, Serve as an advocate for disabled students with related community agencies and various Fresno State departments and/or programs, Respond to emergency situations, as needed in collaboration with Wayfinders staff, Address and resolve issues that threaten the health safety and continued independence of Wayfinders students, Attend all required program and/or domain meetings, workshops, trainings and/or other professional development opportunities unless explicitly excused by supervising Coordinator, 		• Provide guidance necessary to assist Wayfinders students in the successful planning and sites as necessary, Accompany Wayfinders students on public transportation (Ride Share/Buses) to off campus sites. This may include working with Wayfinders students on how to use Google Maps/Transit, Provide coaching support to Wayfinders students at various sites in the community, Observe, collect data and monitor student progress within the program, using tools and strategies acquired through ongoing professional development, Submit documentation for shifts and/or supports provided in a prompt, timely manner, Communicate with supervisor and site administration through a weekly schedule/log of activities and individualized notes, Model superior customer service to all Wayfinders staff, students, and stakeholders, Maintain confidentiality of all pertinent matters relating to personnel, students and faculty, Serve as an advocate for disabled students with related community agencies and various Fresno State departments and/or programs, Respond to emergency situations, as needed in collaboration with Wayfinders staff, Address and resolve issues that threaten the health safety and continued independence of Wayfinders students, Attend all required program and/or domain meetings, workshops, trainings and/or other professional development opportunities unless explicitly excused by supervising Coordinator, Accompany Wayfinders students on public transportation (Ride Share/Buses) to off campus sites. This may include working with Wayfinders students on how to use Google Maps/Transit, Provide coaching support to Wayfinders students at various sites in the community, Observe, collect data and monitor student progress within the program, using tools and strategies acquired through ongoing professional development, Submit documentation for shifts and/or supports provided in a prompt, timely manner, Communicate with supervisor and site administration through a weekly schedule/log of activities and individualized notes, Model superior customer service to all Wayfinders staff, students, and stakeholders, Maintain confidentiality of all pertinent matters relating to personnel, students and faculty, Serve as an advocate for disabled students with related community agencies and various Fresno State departments and/or programs, Respond to emergency situations, as needed in collaboration with Wayfinders staff, Address and resolve issues that threaten the health safety and continued independence of Wayfinders students, Attend all required program and/or domain meetings, workshops, trainings and/or other professional development opportunities unless explicitly excused by supervising Coordinator, 		• Accompany Wayfinders students to classes, job sites/appointments and other community sites. This may include working with Wayfinders students on how to use Google Maps/Transit, Provide coaching support to Wayfinders students at various sites in the community, Observe, collect data and monitor student progress within the program, using tools and strategies acquired through ongoing professional development, Submit documentation for shifts and/or supports provided in a prompt, timely manner, Communicate with supervisor and site administration through a weekly schedule/log of activities and individualized notes, Model superior customer service to all Wayfinders staff, students, and stakeholders, Maintain confidentiality of all pertinent matters relating to personnel, students and faculty, Serve as an advocate for disabled students with related community agencies and various Fresno State departments and/or programs, Respond to emergency situations, as needed in collaboration with Wayfinders staff, Address and resolve issues that threaten the health safety and continued independence of Wayfinders students, Attend all required program and/or domain meetings, workshops, trainings and/or other professional development opportunities unless explicitly excused by supervising Coordinator, 		sites as necessary, Maps/Transit, Provide coaching support to Wayfinders students at various sites in the community, Observe, collect data and monitor student progress within the program, using tools and strategies acquired through ongoing professional development, Submit documentation for shifts and/or supports provided in a prompt, timely manner, Communicate with supervisor and site administration through a weekly schedule/log of activities and individualized notes, Model superior customer service to all Wayfinders staff, students, and stakeholders, Maintain confidentiality of all pertinent matters relating to personnel, students and faculty, Serve as an advocate for disabled students with related community agencies and various Fresno State departments and/or programs, Respond to emergency situations, as needed in collaboration with Wayfinders staff, Address and resolve issues that threaten the health safety and continued independence of Wayfinders students, Attend all required program and/or domain meetings, workshops, trainings and/or other professional development opportunities unless explicitly excused by supervising Coordinator, 		Accompany Wayfinders students on public transportation (Ride Share/Buses) to off campus
 Provide coaching support to Wayfinders students at various sites in the community, Observe, collect data and monitor student progress within the program, using tools and strategies acquired through ongoing professional development, Submit documentation for shifts and/or supports provided in a prompt, timely manner, Communicate with supervisor and site administration through a weekly schedule/log of activities and individualized notes, Model superior customer service to all Wayfinders staff, students, and stakeholders, Maintain confidentiality of all pertinent matters relating to personnel, students and faculty, Serve as an advocate for disabled students with related community agencies and various Fresno State departments and/or programs, Respond to emergency situations, as needed in collaboration with Wayfinders staff, Address and resolve issues that threaten the health safety and continued independence of Wayfinders students, Attend all required program and/or domain meetings, workshops, trainings and/or other professional development opportunities unless explicitly excused by supervising Coordinator, 		sites. This may include working with Wayfinders students on how to use Google
 Observe, collect data and monitor student progress within the program, using tools and strategies acquired through ongoing professional development, Submit documentation for shifts and/or supports provided in a prompt, timely manner, Communicate with supervisor and site administration through a weekly schedule/log of activities and individualized notes, Model superior customer service to all Wayfinders staff, students, and stakeholders, Maintain confidentiality of all pertinent matters relating to personnel, students and faculty, Serve as an advocate for disabled students with related community agencies and various Fresno State departments and/or programs, Respond to emergency situations, as needed in collaboration with Wayfinders staff, Address and resolve issues that threaten the health safety and continued independence of Wayfinders students, Attend all required program and/or domain meetings, workshops, trainings and/or other professional development opportunities unless explicitly excused by supervising Coordinator, 		Maps/Transit, strategies acquired through ongoing professional development, Submit documentation for shifts and/or supports provided in a prompt, timely manner, Communicate with supervisor and site administration through a weekly schedule/log of activities and individualized notes, Model superior customer service to all Wayfinders staff, students, and stakeholders, Maintain confidentiality of all pertinent matters relating to personnel, students and faculty, Serve as an advocate for disabled students with related community agencies and various Fresno State departments and/or programs, Respond to emergency situations, as needed in collaboration with Wayfinders staff, Address and resolve issues that threaten the health safety and continued independence of Wayfinders students, Attend all required program and/or domain meetings, workshops, trainings and/or other professional development opportunities unless explicitly excused by supervising Coordinator, 		 Provide coaching support to Wayfinders students at various sites in the community, Submit documentation for shifts and/or supports provided in a prompt, timely manner, Communicate with supervisor and site administration through a weekly schedule/log of activities and individualized notes, Model superior customer service to all Wayfinders staff, students, and stakeholders, Maintain confidentiality of all pertinent matters relating to personnel, students and faculty, Serve as an advocate for disabled students with related community agencies and various Fresno State departments and/or programs, Respond to emergency situations, as needed in collaboration with Wayfinders staff, Address and resolve issues that threaten the health safety and continued independence of Wayfinders students, Attend all required program and/or domain meetings, workshops, trainings and/or other professional development opportunities unless explicitly excused by supervising Coordinator, 		• Observe, collect data and monitor student progress within the program, using tools and Communicate with supervisor and site administration through a weekly schedule/log of activities and individualized notes, Model superior customer service to all Wayfinders staff, students, and stakeholders, Maintain confidentiality of all pertinent matters relating to personnel, students and faculty, Serve as an advocate for disabled students with related community agencies and various Fresno State departments and/or programs, Respond to emergency situations, as needed in collaboration with Wayfinders staff, Address and resolve issues that threaten the health safety and continued independence of Wayfinders students, Attend all required program and/or domain meetings, workshops, trainings and/or other professional development opportunities unless explicitly excused by supervising Coordinator, 		strategies acquired through ongoing professional development, activities and individualized notes, Model superior customer service to all Wayfinders staff, students, and stakeholders, Maintain confidentiality of all pertinent matters relating to personnel, students and faculty, Serve as an advocate for disabled students with related community agencies and various Fresno State departments and/or programs, Respond to emergency situations, as needed in collaboration with Wayfinders staff, Address and resolve issues that threaten the health safety and continued independence of Wayfinders students, Attend all required program and/or domain meetings, workshops, trainings and/or other professional development opportunities unless explicitly excused by supervising Coordinator, 		• Submit documentation for shifts and/or supports provided in a prompt, timely manner, Model superior customer service to all Wayfinders staff, students, and stakeholders, Maintain confidentiality of all pertinent matters relating to personnel, students and faculty, Serve as an advocate for disabled students with related community agencies and various Fresno State departments and/or programs, Respond to emergency situations, as needed in collaboration with Wayfinders staff, Address and resolve issues that threaten the health safety and continued independence of Wayfinders students, Attend all required program and/or domain meetings, workshops, trainings and/or other professional development opportunities unless explicitly excused by supervising Coordinator, 		• Communicate with supervisor and site administration through a weekly schedule/log of
 Maintain confidentiality of all pertinent matters relating to personnel, students and faculty, Serve as an advocate for disabled students with related community agencies and various Fresno State departments and/or programs, Respond to emergency situations, as needed in collaboration with Wayfinders staff, Address and resolve issues that threaten the health safety and continued independence of Wayfinders students, Attend all required program and/or domain meetings, workshops, trainings and/or other professional development opportunities unless explicitly excused by supervising Coordinator, 		activities and individualized notes,
 Serve as an advocate for disabled students with related community agencies and various Fresno State departments and/or programs, Respond to emergency situations, as needed in collaboration with Wayfinders staff, Address and resolve issues that threaten the health safety and continued independence of Wayfinders students, Attend all required program and/or domain meetings, workshops, trainings and/or other professional development opportunities unless explicitly excused by supervising Coordinator, 		 Model superior customer service to all Wayfinders staff, students, and stakeholders,
 Fresno State departments and/or programs, Respond to emergency situations, as needed in collaboration with Wayfinders staff, Address and resolve issues that threaten the health safety and continued independence of Wayfinders students, Attend all required program and/or domain meetings, workshops, trainings and/or other professional development opportunities unless explicitly excused by supervising Coordinator, 		• Maintain confidentiality of all pertinent matters relating to personnel, students and faculty,
 Respond to emergency situations, as needed in collaboration with Wayfinders staff, Address and resolve issues that threaten the health safety and continued independence of Wayfinders students, Attend all required program and/or domain meetings, workshops, trainings and/or other professional development opportunities unless explicitly excused by supervising Coordinator, 		• Serve as an advocate for disabled students with related community agencies and various
 Address and resolve issues that threaten the health safety and continued independence of Wayfinders students, Attend all required program and/or domain meetings, workshops, trainings and/or other professional development opportunities unless explicitly excused by supervising Coordinator, 		Fresno State departments and/or programs,
 Wayfinders students, Attend all required program and/or domain meetings, workshops, trainings and/or other professional development opportunities unless explicitly excused by supervising Coordinator, 		• Respond to emergency situations, as needed in collaboration with Wayfinders staff,
 Wayfinders students, Attend all required program and/or domain meetings, workshops, trainings and/or other professional development opportunities unless explicitly excused by supervising Coordinator, 		• Address and resolve issues that threaten the health safety and continued independence of
 Attend all required program and/or domain meetings, workshops, trainings and/or other professional development opportunities unless explicitly excused by supervising Coordinator, 		, , , professional development opportunities unless explicitly excused by supervising Coordinator,		• Attend all required program and/or domain meetings, workshops, trainings and/or other
Coordinator,		professional development opportunities unless explicitly excused by supervising Assist with special events as needed, & Perform other duties as assigned.

POSITION REQUIREMENTS:	 To perform this job successfully, an individual must be able to perform each essential duty satisfactorily. The requirements listed below are representative of the knowledge, skill, and/or ability required. Reasonable accommodations may be made to enable individuals with disabilities to perform the essential functions. High school diploma or equivalent required Must be enrolled in the upcoming semester at California State University, Fresno in at least six (6) units (undergrad) or three (3) units (grad) Valid Driver's License, vehicle and insurance as coaches may be asked to provide transportation Completion of First Aid, CPR and fingerprint clearance (to be completed upon hire) Good organization and writing skills to be required to log and take detailed case notes on any work they do with the students Coaches must have a passion and ability to relate to individuals with intellectual/developmental disabilities Must have a basic understanding of different learning styles of the students, be adaptive and creative adjusting to the needs of each student
SALARY/BENEFITS:	$16.50 per hour. This position is non-benefited.
DEADLINE:	Application review begins immediately; Open until filled.
TO APPLY:	Please visit the Auxiliary Human Resources page at https://auxiliary.fresnostate.edu/association/hr/employment-opportunities.html for job announcement and application. E-mail completed application & resume to: wayfinders@mail.fresnostate.edu .

RESUMES WILL NOT BE ACCEPTED WITHOUT A COMPLETED APPLICATION

California State University, Fresno is a smoke free campus. For more information, please click http://fresnostate.edu/adminserv/smokefree/index.html Employment for this position is by the California State University, Fresno Foundation. This is not a State of California position. AN AFFIRMATIVE ACTION/EQUAL OPPORTUNITY/ADA EMPLOYER