MARY E. MCGARRY STUDENT LOAN TERMS AND CONDITIONS

The interest rate for a Mary E. McGarry student loan is zero percent (0%) simple interest (however interest is charged at one percent (1%) following any default on the loan by the borrower). The maximum amount that a student may borrow, subject to his or her financial need, is Fifteen Thousand Dollars ($15,000) per academic year, or Seven Thousand Five Hundred Dollars ($7,500) per semester, for a maximum allowable cumulative amount of Sixty Thousand Dollars ($60,000). Though you are allowed to make payments at any time on or before the loan due date without penalty, all loan proceeds and accrued interest will be fully due and payable no later than five (5) years after you cease to be enrolled as a full-time student at Fresno State.

The determination as to whether you qualify for a Mary E. McGarry student loan shall be made by the Foundation in its discretion, and shall be based on a review of your FAFSA, and this application.

If you are approved to receive a Mary E. McGarry student loan, before loan monies will be disbursed to you, you will be required to sign documents evidencing the loan. If you should fail to fully pay the loan on or before the due date, legal action will be taken against you to collect the amounts you owe. If this happens, you could be held liable for the principal amount of the loan due, accrued interest, as well as court costs and legal fees.

If you wish to participate in the loan forgiveness program, and you are willing to enroll in INTD 194i to intern at a Community Benefit Organization during the semester(s) that you received the loan, please so indicate by initialing the box on the loan application.

Please take notice that receiving Mary E. McGarry student loan monies could affect your ability to qualify for federal student loans, as well as other forms of financial aid.
